

Every user is issued this challenge: In a network designed for hate, will you go with the flow or lift your self by your bootstraps and bring love and kindness? In society of vice can you be virtuous?

Keith

Hate this in network. The more hate you have The easier it is for more people to hate you.

Keith

Instead of skill checks we have flaws if you are below average in a the tests or scores you are placed in a losers board and gain a flaw

Keith

You don't know if you joined a cult users are automatically added to one and you automatically repost whatever is posted by the cult. Cults can have leaders.

Keith

theme slowly turns dark as you use the app more

Keith

Must be 18+ to join

Keith

people are encouraged to post short clips and text that can be quoted and clipped together out of context

Keith

If you have similar people and things you hate you are part of the Same cult

Keith

Temp ban but still get message if post hated enough

Keith

pay to give people typos and unremovable titles

Keith

If you dont pay the entrance fee you get the peasant or broke tag

Keith

Success in a test is given by allowing the winner to play a short clip of their choice.

Keith

Because no publicity is bad publicity

Keith

make someone cry today, say something mean, ruined anyones day messages

Keith

rate peoples attractiveness
